310 OHS Professionals Demonstrate Their Commitment to Providing the Safest and Healthiest Workplaces

Mississauga, ON – May 31, 2019 – The Board of Canadian Registered Safety Professionals (BCRSP) is pleased to announce 310 Occupational Health & Safety (OHS) professionals have recently been granted certification as a Canadian Registered Safety Professional (CRSP)[®].

This highly respected certification is awarded to individuals who meet academic standards, satisfy professional practice experience requirements and have passed the rigorous CRSP[®] Examination. The CRSP[®] Examination is a criterion-referenced examination created to evaluate the competencies a safety professional is required to possess in order to practice safely and effectively.

“Achieving the CRSP[®] certification is a milestone in an individuals’ career,” says Kevin Dawson, Chair of the BCRSP Governing Board. “Congratulations to the 310 individuals on their achievement and commitment to safe and healthy workplaces.”

Canadian Registered Safety Professionals offer in-depth knowledge of OHS principles and practices and apply this knowledge to develop systems to achieve optimum control over hazards in a workplace. A CRSP[®] will represent OHS matters at all levels and will interact with other business leaders in the interest of an organization’s performance. CRSP’s, quickly become leaders in their industry and assist companies across Canada to operate safely daily.

Congratulations to the following safety professionals on achieving Canadian Registered Safety Professional (CRSP)[®] certification.

About the BCRSP

The Board of Canadian Registered Safety Professionals is a public interest, not-for-profit, federally incorporated self-regulating organization which sets the certification standards for the OHS profession. BCRSP strives to advance the body of knowledge, the competency of the profession, and the value our certificants bring to society. The BCRSP grants the CRSP® and CRST certifications to individuals who successfully complete the certification process through application assessment, interview, and examination. The Board governs its certificants in order that the public interest may be served and protected.
